ALTGELD NEAR THE END.

EXTINCTION OF AN UNSAVORY PUBLIC CAREER ASSURED.

THE ANARCHIST GOVERNOR FLIES TO THIS CITY LEAVING UGLY QUESTIONS UNANSWERED

> IN ILLINOIS-THE RISE IN WHEAT AFFECTS THE CAMPAIGN.

> [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Chicago, Oct. 16 .- Governor Altgeld has gone to New-York to make speeches on an invitation which Tammany repudiates. Precisely what he seeks to accomplish by this step is open to conjecture. A few weeks ago he loudly boasted that he would live to "pull Bryan through" in Illinois. To-day it looks as if he would not only fail "to pull through" himself, but be beaten by a majority such as no candidate for Governor was beaten by before. The Republican State Committee claims that Illinois will be carried for McKinley by nearly 100,000. Less cautious judges of the situation estimate the majority for McKinley in Cook County alone at 75,000, and in the rest of the State at no less than 80,000, giving a total of 155,000. The least sanguine estimates figure on a Republican majority of 50,000 for the State. Even Popocratic campaign managers admit in private that the State is lost to Bryan.

The probabilities are that Altgeld will run slightly ahead of Bryan. This is largely based upon the belief that many German voters will give him their support for sentimental reasons. A small number of people who are opposed to the free coinage of silver, but yet approved his course during the great railroad strike, may also do so. The support of these people may put Altgeld ahead of Bryan by about 10,000 votes. It will not be sufficient, however, to bring about the election of Altgeld and McKinley, a result more or less freely predicted some time ago, upon the supposition that the campaign would develop material to trade on. This, it has been proved conclusively, was an illusory hope. The Republican majority will be too large to make a dicker in votes either probable or even possible. Meanwhile Popocratic headquarters indulge in a graveyard whistle by declaring that Governor Altgeld's absence in New-York at this critical time is to be interpreted as a certain sign that he, the Governor, feels absolutely sure of carrying the State, or else he would not leave it upon a bootless and Quixotic errand into "the enemy's country." The most natural construction to be placed upon the Governor's absence is, of course, that he has about given up all hope, and that he returns to Chicago to play a week's engagement only for the sake of appearances and to save his machine from falling to pieces altogether. NO ANSWER TO MR. FORMAN'S QUESTIONS.

Governor Altgeld has been making a great many speeches in the course of the last few weeks, but in none has he answered any of the questions asked of him by Mr. Forman, his competitor on the National Democratic ticket.

Mr. Forman has asked Mr. Altgeld, over and over again, if he has not borrowed State funds; if he was not assisted by Hinrichsen and Durfee in taking up his due bills; if he did not permit the vaults of the State Treasury to be opened between the time of the death of the Treasurer and the qualification of his successor, contrary to law; if he did not appoint as Treasurer the son of Ramsay, who was a defaulter; if he did not remove the Superintendent of the Illinois Asylum for Feeble Minded Children because he would not lend Altgeld the funds of that institution; if he did not ask for the resignation of the Treasurer of the Anna Insane Asylum for of money appropriated for the maintenance of State institutions to be withdrawn from the Treasury before it was needed, to be deposited

These are the questions Mr. Forman has asked and Mr. Altgeld has failed to answer. The people of Illinois arc naturally worked up over this matter. They have been hearing Forman make these charges all over the State. They have noticed that Altreld makes no attempt to answer them. Voluble as to everything else, he is as silent as a clam on these grave accu sations against him. And yet there is nothing the people of Illinois are more curious to find out about than this, and though appeal after appeal is fired at Altgeld he coolly takes the train for New-York and keeps his friends guessing as to the truth or falsity of these charges. It is a strange indifference on his part. "THE BOY ORATOR" COMES WHEN HE IS CALLED.

But Governor Aligeld is strangely indifferent to public opinion. He seems to think that he to above referring to such accusations. It is noticed, too, that since the Chicago Convention, a body almost controlled by him, he has assumed lordly airs which make it difficult for people to get along with him. He assumes to have acquired proprietary rights in Bryan, for instance, which he is at no pains to conceal. and the display of which serves only to irritate the "Boy Orator's" friends. Thus it is re lated that while sitting in his room at the Clifton House on his last visit to Chicago, Bryan was suddenly called by the ring of the telephone and stepping to the instrument the following words dropped from his lips:

"Hello, hello! Oh, beg pardon, is that you, Governor? Yes. At the Unity Building, you say. Yes, will be right over to see you. Good-

And much to the surprise of the circle of friends gathered in his room, the Democratic candidate for the Presidency immediately took his cane and hat and marched over to the office of Governor Altgeld in the Unity Building, or Dearborn-st., whither he had been summoned. It is not surprising that a man who can order Presidential possibilities about in this fashion should occasionally be discovered by his friends walking with his head in the clouds.

A RADICAL EXODUS TO AFRICA.

The Altgeld candidacy serves every now and then to revive the memories of the Anarchist troubles in Chicago. A pathway straight to Johannesburg in the Transvaal is being cut by the old radicals, and it is said that if the exodus keeps up for another month this city will see the last of the men who in the past were called Sarsaparilla.

Hood's

Which purifies the blood and cures scrofula, etc. Hood's Pills do not cause pain or gripe.

"Anarchists," "revolutionists" and the like. The emigration to the heart of Africa began about the time the Boers demonstrated their ability to manage their affairs without the assistance of the British Chartered Company's Dr. Jameson, and it is claimed that up to this time nearly fifty of the old-time radicals have left the city and are now either in the Transvaal country or on their way to it. These who have left Chicago have been joined by the radicals from other cities, and there are in Johannesburg more than 100 of the former residents of the United States who did not count their best friends among the authorities.

HEAVY REGISTRATION IN CHICAGO.

HEAVY REGISTRATION IN CHICAGO.

The unusually heavy local registration indicates a very large vote in November. The Chicago Club-the leading club, probably, of the city-has, it is said, not a single member who has failed to register. In former years a baker's dozen, perhaps, registered among 600 members. A more than ordinarily conspicuous example, however, of the interest in the pending campaign is furnished in the person of a real estate dealer of the name of Singer. Mr. Singer is a Sound Money Democrat, and went abroad with his family last spring. His idea was to make a European tour which would take ain ost a year, and plans had been laid for a season of well-earned rest and enjoyment for all in the party. But while travelling about Mr. Singer kept in touch with home affairs, and as the importance the coming election became more and more srent he determined that his vote should be lost. So, eleven days ago, he took a train from Paris to Calais, a boat across the Channel and another train to Southampton, where he bharded an ocean steamer, and seven days afterward was in New-York City. Thence it was an easy trip to Chicago, and early last Tuesday morning Mr. Singer walked up to his polling-place in the Fourth Ward and registered so he would be able to yote in November. Altogether, when he rejoins his family, he will have travelled a little over eight thousand miles for the purpose of casting a vote for McKinley and Hobart.

POPOCRATIC CAMPAIGN DEMORALIZED.

At Republican headquarters the most cheering news continues coming in from different quarters. In Ohio, for instance, it is learned that the Democrats have scarcely any organization or money. They are completely demor-The men who have usually led them are alized. The men who have usually led them are all supporting McKinley or the "Sound Money" ticket. "Dan" McConville, the chairman of the State Committee, is spending nearly all his time here, and John R. McLean, who promised the National Committee that he would look after Ohio, and guarantee Bryan a majority in the State without assistance from them, is at his home in Washington sick with the gout. These two gentlemen have left the management of the campaign in the hands of a lot of amateurs, who are employed because they are willing to work for little or nothing. The strong teurs, who are employed because they are willing to work for little or nothing. The strong men, those who have furnished the means and made the speeches and stirred up the enthusiasm for the Democracy in past years, have repudiated the Chicago nominees and platform, and are giving their money and spending their time trying to roll up the biggest possible majority for McKinley.

The only man of reputation who has made a speech in Ohio for Bryan is Newlands, the Populist member of Congress from Nevada, whose wife was a daughter of the late Senator Sharon, the bonanza king, and inherited half his millions.

WHAT AN OBJECT LESSON. Only one thing in Chicago is of more interest than politics, and that one thing is wheat. At the closing of the Board of Trade yesterday December wheat was quoted at 7002. At the opening to-day and without waiting for a standopening to-day and without waiting for a standing start at last night's figures, the price was anywhere from 71½ to 71½. It closed above 72. There is a big, broad, firm market condition, old traders believe, that warrants the advance to figures that would have seemed impossible three months ago. "Dollar wheat before Christmas" is the cry of the Street. It is not without its effect upon the campaign, for reports from wheat-growing States, received ever since the rise in this cereal began, show a determination on the part of the Republican farmer to stand by his colors. In such States the professional calamity-howler may be said to have had his day. have had his day.

THE WORK IN THE WEST.

NO CESSATION IN THE GIGANTIC LABORS OF THE REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN MANAGERS.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Among important assignments made by the Republican Speakers' Bureau to-day were: Congressman McCleary, to speak at Huron. S. D. on October 28, and ex-Secretary Robert E. Lincoln and William E. Brown, to Minnesota. They will speak at Duluth on the 21st, Minneapolis on the great meetings. J. W. Keifer, ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives, has been assigned to Illi-nois for three meetings during the week of October 26. Colonel William M. He was greatly pleased with everything he saw. Colonel Osborne speaks in the most confident tones of the situation in the East, but said the headquarters there are still busy at work, and will remain so till Election Day.

Committeeman Durbin returned from a tour of Michigan this morning, and reports everything in that State as most satisfactory, and the Republicans gaining daily. He is sure of a good round majority for McKinley and Hobert in Michigan.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE NATIONAL EN CAMPMENT OF THE UNION VETERAN LEGION

Washington, Oct. 16 .- At this morning's session of the Union Veteran Legion resolutions were passed advocating the election of McKinley and Hobart. While the utmost reticence about discussing the matter is exhibited by the delegates to the Encampmatter is exhibited by the delegates to the Encampment, it is said that there was little debate on the subject, and that the resolutions were adopted practically without opposition. It is also understood that the pension policy of the present Administration was condemned.

The morning was consumed in action upon the annual reports and the installation of officers.

INGERSOLL SPEAKS IN PEORIA.

Peoria, Iil., Oct. 16 (Special).—Colonel Robert Ir gersoll addressed 7,000 people here to-day. H spoke for over two hours, dealing with the money question, and seemed to be more eloquent and effective in his utterances than at any time in his effective in his utterances than at any time in his life. He was greeted, as was Mrs. Ingersoll, by old-time friends, who knew them when they were residents of Peoria. In an interview to-day Colonel Ingersoll said he felt sure that McKinley would carry Illinois by over 60,000 and probably 80,000.

TAKING THE DIRECT WAY TO BEAT BRYAN. Savannah, Ga., Oct. 16.-J. M. Wilkinson, of Valdosta, Ga., an elector on the Palmer and Buckner ticket, has tendered his resignation. He says he believes every sound money man should vote directly with the party advocating sound money, as all the free-silver elements are unting their forces. Mr. Wilkinson also says he believes in a reasonable protective tariff.

PROTECTION IN NORTH CAROLINA MILLS.

Concord, N. C., Oct. 16 (Special).-The managers Cabarrus Cotton Mill and Canton Manufacturing Company stopped their mills for about twenty-five minutes to-day, and Laurus Loomis, of New-York, made a forcible address on Protection for the South. McKinley clubs will be organized in the mills. There is no coercion on the part of the mill owners, who stopped the Cabarrus Mill to enable the operatives to hear Mr. Bryan on his recent visit. The operatives have determined it is to their interest to vote for Protection. A McKinjey and Hobart club, 170 strong, has been organized in the Odell mills here.

HARD AT WORK IN PENNSYLVANIA.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE AS ACTIVE AS IF THE RESULT WERE IN DOUBT.

Philadelphia, Oct. 16 (Special).—The headquarters the Republican State Committee presented as busy an appearance to-day as at any time since the opening of the campaign. Secretary W. R. Andrews, in the course of a conversation, remarked; There will be no let-up until the day of election. We will work just as hard the next two weeks as we have at any time since early in July." He said that up to the present time over 7,000,000 pieces of campaign literature had been sent throughout e State. Every county, with the exception of Philadelphia, has received a supply of documents relating to the leading questions upon which the National contest is being made. From 300,000 to 100,000 pieces of literature are being daily dispatched to various sections in Pennsylvania. In addition to all that, over 450,000 pieces of mail matter have en personally addressed to voters to all that, over 450,000 pleees of main matter above been personally addressed to voters.

"We know Pennsylvania is all right for McKinley, and are very confident about the general result, said Secretary Andraws." but we are bending all our energies to carry carlain Congress districts which are debatable. For instance, there is the Crawford-Erie district, in which Sibley is running. He carried it once, and he thinks he can do it again. We want to prevent him from doing it. Then there are the Northumberland District and the Schuylkill and Scranton districts. We don't want to lose a single district we carried in 1894.

Mr. Andrews said, in conclusion, that the committee had kept itself supplied with literature that suited the agriculturist, the miner, the steel and iron worker, the laboring man, the mechanic of every description, and the professional man. These, besides being printed in the English language, are also in the tongues of the Italian, French, German, Polander, Swede and Hollander, The demand for those in the Polish language, he said, had been surprisingly great.

for free sliver was denied by the mottoes, which decared for sound money even more strongly than for bunting and with portraits of the National nominees.

At a great mass-meeting in the evening an address was made by Thomas Fitch, who had just returned from a stumping tour in the East. He said that biinetallism was not an issue, for all parties favored it.
The only question was whether we should remain with Europe on a gold basts or join Mexico, Japan and China and adopt sliver monometallism. The people of the East were overwhelmingly for sound

by her vote, but she could help herself to Starchood

A FRAUD WORKED ON THOMAS GARFIELD.

HOW HE WAS DECEIVED INTO SIGNING A FREE-SHAVER DECLARATION.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct 16 (Special) -The Poporatic State Central Committee recently gave publicity to a letter purported to have been written by Thomas Garfield, the venerable and only brother of the late President James A. Garfield, in which he was made to subscribe to the free-silver faith, denounce the Republican financial doctrine and promise to vote for Bryan. In signing the letter ndorsing Bryanism, Mr. Garfield victim of a confidence game, and L. K. has just received a letter from him explaining how it was worked, and at the same time giving his true sentiments. The letter is as follows:

Jamestown, Mich., October 13, 1836.

Colonel L. K. Bishop, Chairman Republican Congressional Committee, Grand Rapids, Mich. My attention having been called to a letter purporting to have been written by me, in which I am quoted as saying that I had republican platform as adopted at St. Louis, and that I was in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and should vote for Bryan at the coming election, I, in justice to myself and my fellow-countrymen, desire through the columns of the press to make the following statement and to define my present position:

On the 2th day of October, 1836, two strangers called at my residence in Jamestown, one purporting to be a minister of the Gospel and the other claiming to be looking over the route of the proposed new railroad from Grand Rapids to Saugatuck, During the conversation I was asked if I was in favor of using both gold and silver as money, and, knowing it was the policy of the Republican party to use both gold and silver as money under such restrictions as should at all times preserve the parity of the two metals and make them interchangeable with each other, I answered yes. On being asked if I could sign my name to a paper to that effect for their personal hencilt, I said that I could, and signed the same after it had been read to me as above. Any other statement not consistent with the above that may appear in exid letter was placed there without my knowledge or consent, and was done to deceive people by using my name as a brother of the marry tred President, James A. Garfield.

I further desire to define my position as being in favor of the principles of the Republican party as laid down in their platform adopted at St. Louis, and I am anxiously waiting for the 2d day of November, when I shall cast my vote for the boy solder, the mature statesman and magnificent example of American citizenship, William McKiniev, an

How much business can a man do whose system is in a state of disorder? Headache is only a symptom, It is not a disease. The pain in the head is the sign of rebellion. There have been mistakes in diet. There has been overwork and sleepless nights. The machinery of the whole system is demoralized. A business man feels that he cannot afford to be ill enough to quit work. He drags along day after day, makes bad deals, says the wrong thing, and health and business collapse together. There's no need of either disaster. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a gentle, effective renovator of both stonach and bowels. They assist nature without threatening to tear the body piece-meal. There are no griping pains, no nausea. One is a barely perceptible laxative. Two give more noticeable results, and they may be continued until the system is throughly renovated, strengthened, and put into harmony with nature. One need not fear a "habit" of taking the "Pleasant Pellets." As soon as health is restored they may be discarded without a return of illness because of their absence. Therefore, you don't become a slave to their use.

CARLISLE TO WAGE-EARNERS.

SOUND-MONEY TALK TO MEN WHO WILL VOTE FOR M'KINLEY.

THE SECRETARY ADDRESSES A MARYLAND DELE-GATION WHICH CALLS ON HIM AT THE

ing and significant incidents of the campaign oc curred in Washington this afternoon, when a delegation, numbering 300 workingmen, from Baltimore, called at the Treasury Department, and through their spokesman urgently requested Secretary Carlisle to visit that city and deliver an address on the political issues of the campaign similar to the one he delivered at Chicago April. The men composing the delegation were all Democrats, but they represented the Wage-Earners' Patriotic League of Maryland, which is a non partisan organization formed to promote and aid in the election of McKinley and Hobart. The League already numbers several thousand mem-bers, and its members up is rapidly increasing. It cems to include a large proportion of the employees in the manufacturing and other industries of Baltimore, most of which were represented today by a body of as intelligent and evidently self-respecting men as could be found anywhere. didate Bryan would hardly have cared to look in their faces to-day and suggest that they were victims of "coercion" or "intimidation." would be have dared to deny, after his repeated assertions that one man is as competent as another to solve the financial problems which vex the country, that the spokesman of this delegation had reached a conclusion that was at least satisfactory to them and to the thousands of wage earners they represented.

A special train of seven cars brought the delegation to this city, where it arrived at 1.30 o'clock The cars were decorated with the inscription 'Wage-Earners' Patriotic League of Maryland.' Each man wore a badge, upon which was the in scription, in addition to the name of the League, "Honest Dollars for Honest Toil; Patriotic Defence of National Honor.

Gentiemen, I am very much obliged to you for this visit, and very sorry that it is not in my power to comply with the request you have come here to make. The reasons why I am not able to do so. I think are tolerably well understood by the publik. My business has been so arranged as to permit me to make a few speeches in my own State, but under the circumstances it would not be possible for me to go elsewhere. I cannot, therefore, accept your invitation to go to Ballimore, but one or two things have been suggested by the address just made about which I would like to say a very few words to you while you are here. If there is a laboring man in the United States who really believes that the money he is now receiving for his wages is too good for him, that it is buying too much food, too much clothing for himself and family, or that it is paying the rent for a better house than he and his family ought to live in. It is his duty to vote for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. (Cheers.) If there is any laboring man in the United States who has saved money out of his earnings and has deposited it in a savings bank or building association, or paid it on a polley of life insurance for the henefit of his family, and who desires to have it paid back to him in a currency worth about half as much as the money he paid out, he also ought to vote for the free and unlimited coinage, of silver, for that will give ham exactly what he wants.

On the other hand, every man in the United States, whether he works for wages or to, who wants to preserve the value of what he maintenance of a sound and stable currency in this country. (Applause.) While every man who works for wages or receives a fixed compensation for his services must be deeply interested in the result of the pending contest, those men who work for railroad companies and other transportation companies, many of whom are perhaps here, have a special interest in the questions i whom are perhaps here, have a special interest in the questions involved, because their employers are confronted by a situation which makes it impossible so to increase wages as to compensate for the diminished purchasing power of the money in which wages must be paid if the policy of free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 is adopted. These companies cannot increase wages unless they can increase the receipts from their business; they can increase the receipts from their business unless they can increase the charges for carrying freight and passengers, and if they should attempt to increase the charges for carrying freight and passengers at it is safe to say that the very men, the very people who are now most clamorous for the free coinage of silver, would be the first to protest against it and to demand legislation to prohibit it in all cases where such legislation is not already existing. (Applause.) The man, therefore, who works for a transportation company would find himself the helpless victim of a policy which diminished the purchasing power of his wages about one-half, and compelled him to work on and on for the same number of dollars he received before, thus destroying all hope of limprovement of his condition.

But, gentlemen, the laboring men have their fate in their own hands. They have the power to protect their country against depreciation and to protect their country against financial disturbance and ruin, and if they are as intelligent and patriotic as I believe them to be, they will see exfert er dare to aporoach them in behalf of his wild and revolutionary scheme of finance and civil government. (Prolonged applause.)

Now, gentlemen, I thank you again for this visit, and I tender to each and every one of you my best wishes for his prosperity in whatever calling he may hereafter be engaged.

State are entitled to a party column on the official ballot under the name of the National Democratic party. This was decided this morning by the Court of Appeals. The court handed down a decision affirming without costs the decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the Second Department in the Brooklyn Assembly care, which holds that the National.Democratic party nominations are regular party nominations and that that party is entitled to a separate column on the official ballot in this State. All the Judges concur in this decision, except Judge Vann, who did not vote, as he is the Republican cardidate for Court of Appeals Judge to succeed himself. There was no opinion prepared to accompany this decision of the Court.

This decision is final, and will hold in all cases throughout the State where the right of nominees of the National Democratic party to a nees of the National Democratic party to a place on the official ballot in a party column has been contested by the regular Democratic organization. The decision, also, in effect, sustains the decision of Secretary of State Palmer, who several days ago decided that he would give the National Democratic party a column on the official ballot.

The contention of the regular Democrats was that the National Democratic party was not the Democratic Party Reform Organization under a new name, as it claimed to be, and also that the words "National Democratic" were so similar to the title of the old Democracy that they would be likely to mislead voters.

The emblem at the head of the National Democratic column will be the full-rigged ship used for two years by the Democratic Party Reform Organization.

Sound Money Democrats in this city were elated last evening over the decision of the Court of Appeals which compels the Police Commissioners to place the name of the National Democratic party on place the name of the National Democratic party on the official bailot with the emblem of the ship over the party ticket. Edward M. Shepard said: "We shall now go ahead on the lines originally laid down by us. We have preserved our title. We have the ship as our emblem. CALLERS AT HEADQUARTERS.

Governor Morton was a caller at Republican National Headquarters yesterday. When it became known that he was there a number of prominent Republicans dropped in, and an informal conference was held in the room of the candidate for Vice-President. Beside Mr. Hobart and Governor Morten, those present were Senator Quay, Mr. Scott, General Clayton, Mr. Manley, B. F. Jones, of Pittsburg, ex-chairman of the Republican National Committee, and ex-Governor Perham, of Maine. Those present discussed the political situation and expressed great satisfaction with the outlook. gratifying indications shown in the New-York registration were especially commented upon.

There is little going on at the Republican head-quarters these days. Everything is running smoothly, but the main fighting is going on in the West. Save for the cheering reports brought into head-quarters by occasional visitors, there is little news there. Among the callers yesterday was James A. Gary, of Baltimore, formerly member of the National Committee, and his reports of the prospects in Maryland were of the same encouraging character as those that have come from the State for the last month. "In Maryland, as surely as it is in New-York," said Mr. Gary, "the question is one of the size of the majority. Our people are absolutely free from any tendencies toward nullification or repudiation. The credit of our State and our cities has always ranked with the highest. Maryland will give McKinley a majority that will even astenish Marylanders themselves." Save for the cheering reports brought into head which show that the business men of this city are unanimous for McKinley and sound money is the flag which was raised over Fulton-st, at noon ye terday by the Fulton Club. On the sixth floor of the Market and Fulton National Bank Building, at Fulton and Gold sts., the club has its home, and from a front window the cable say porting the flag is stretched to the roof of the building No. 86 Fulton-st. The flag is fifty feet long and thirty feet wide, and at the bottom is the approuncement:

About two hundred representative business mer are members of the club. Some of them made canvass a few days ago and found that all were for Mckinley and not one for Eryan. More than half of the members are Democrats. There was no speechmaking when the flag was raised yesterday, but many of the members cheered, and hundreds of other men who saw the flag raised joined in the cheering. The officers of the Fulton Club are: Heary B. Platt, president; Henry B. Haigh, vice-president: Frederiz G. Dow, secretary, and Alexander Gilbert, treasurer. The directors are Frank L. Montague, William F. Smith, James C. Peabody, W. W. Farmer, Augustus J. Cordier, Ormond G. Smith, John Reid and Augustus M. Srush. Between the new flag and Broadway in Fultonst, are three other large McKinley and Hobart flags, and the one nearest Broadway carries the snnouncement: "Fulton Street Is for Gold." half of the members are Democrats. There was

PLANNING THE BIG PARADE. The arrangements for the big parade of business money are proceeding smoothly.

General Horace Porter, the grand marshal of the parade, yesterday issued a notice, in which he celled the attention of the marshels of all orkanizations that intend to take part in the parade to the importance of sending to the headquarters in the Mills Building without delay the number of men on their rolls and the streets in which it will most convenient for them to assemble. This information, General Porter pointed out, must be received not later than Taesday. October 20, in order that the formation of the parade may be definitely determined and the final orders issued on October 24.

General James M. Varnum, marshal of the Law-yers' Sound Money Campaign Club, has issued a general order, in which he says that about three thousand members of the bar will take part in the parade. Members of the bar are invited to form
